Employee Direct Deposit Enrollment Form

Payroll Manager – Please complete this section and send a copy to ADP for enrollment. (Please print.)

Company Code: _____ Company Name: _____ Employee File Number: _____

Payroll Mgr. Name: _____ Payroll Mgr. Signature: _____

To enroll in Full Service Direct Deposit, simply fill out this form and give to your payroll manager. Attach a voided check for each checking account - not a deposit slip. If depositing to a savings account, ask your bank to give you the Routing/Transit Number for your account. It isn't always the same as the number on a savings deposit slip. This will help ensure that you are paid correctly.

Below is a sample check MICR line, detailing where the information necessary to complete this form can be found.

The diagram shows a sample check MICR line: 1: 0123456781: 123456789 0101. Arrows point from labels to specific parts of the line:

- Routing/Transit # (A 9-digit number always between these two marks) points to the first 9 digits: 012345678.
- Checking Account # points to the 10th digit: 1.
- Check # (this number matches the number in the upper right corner of the check – not needed for sign-up) points to the last 4 digits: 0101.

IMPORTANT! Please read and sign before completing and submitting.

I hereby authorize ADP to deposit any amounts owed me, as instructed by my employer, by initiating credit entries to my account at the financial institution (hereinafter "Bank") indicated on this form. Further, I authorize Bank to accept and to credit any credit entries indicated by ADP to my account. In the event that ADP deposits funds erroneously into my account, I authorize ADP to debit my account for an amount not to exceed the original amount of the erroneous credit.

This authorization is to remain in full force and effect until ADP and Bank have received written notice from me of its termination in such time and in such manner as to afford ADP and Bank reasonable opportunity to act on it.

AT WILL EMPLOYMENT

Your employment relationship with the Hotel is 'At-Will' which means that it is a voluntary one which may be terminated by either the Hotel or yourself, with or without cause, and with or without notice, at any time. Nothing in these policies shall be interpreted to be in conflict with or to eliminate or modify in any way the 'employment-at-will' status of Hotel associates.

WORKPLACE VIOLENCE PREVENTION POLICY

The Hotel strives to maintain a productive work environment free of violence and the threat of violence. We are committed to the safety of our associates, vendors, customers and visitors.

The Hotel does not tolerate any type of workplace violence committed by or against associates. Any threats or acts of violence against an associate, vendor customer, visitor or property will not be tolerated. Any associate who threatens violence or acts in a violent manner while on Hotel premises, or during working hours will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination. Where appropriate, the Hotel will report violent incidents to local law enforcement authorities.

A violent act, or threat of violence, is defined as any direct or indirect action or behavior that could be interpreted, in light of known facts, circumstances and information, by a reasonable person, as indicating the potential for or intent to harm, endanger or inflict pain or injury on any person or property.

Examples of prohibited conduct include but are not limited to:

- Physical assault, threat to assault or stalking an associate or customer;
- Possessing or threatening with a weapon on hotel premises;
- Intentionally damaging property of the Hotel or personal property of another;
- Aggressive or hostile behavior that creates a reasonable fear of injury to another person;
- Harassing or intimidating statements, phone calls, voice mails, or e-mail messages, or those which are unwanted or deemed offensive by the receiver, including cursing and/or name calling;
- Racial or cultural epithets or other derogatory remarks associated with hate crime threats.
- Conduct that threatens, intimidates or coerces another associate, customer, vendor or business associate
- Use of hotel resources to threaten, stalk or harass anyone at the workplace or outside of the workplace.

The Hotel treats threats coming from an abusive personal relationship as it does other forms of violence and associates should promptly inform their immediate supervisor or General Manager of any protective or restraining order that they have obtained that lists the workplace as a protected area.

Any associate who feels threatened or is subjected to violent conduct or who witnesses threatening or violent conduct at the workplace should report the incident to his or her supervisor or any member of management immediately. In addition, associates should report all suspicious individuals or activities as soon as possible.

Associates who are not comfortable reporting incidents at the property level may contact the administrative office at (908) 444-8139 or via email at njbackoffice@lakecrest.com. A representative will promptly and thoroughly investigate all reports of threats or actual violence as well as suspicious individuals and activities at the workplace.

The Hotel will not retaliate against associates making good-faith reports of violence, threats or suspicious individuals or activities.

Anyone determined to be responsible for threats of or actual violence or other conduct that is in violation of this policy will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination.

In order to maintain workplace safety and the integrity of its investigation, the Hotel may suspend associates suspected of workplace violence or threats of violence, either with or without pay, pending investigation.

The Hotel strictly forbids any employee to possess, concealed, or otherwise, any weapon on their person while on the Hotel premises, including but not limited to fire arms. The Hotel also forbids brandishing firearms in the parking lot (other than for lawful self-defense) and prohibiting threats or threatening behavior of any type.

SURVEILLANCE

For safety, visual and audio recording devices are installed throughout the property and the footage is recorded.

PAY, PAY PERIOD AND PAY DAY

Associates are paid biweekly (every other week) for their hours worked during the preceding pay period.

- A pay period consists of two consecutive pay weeks, at 7 days per week.

For employees who have elected direct deposit as payment method, a pay stub will not be issued at the Hotel. Contact your General Manager for electronic access to your pay stub through a payroll portal. For employees who do not select direct deposit, a check and pay stub will be made available for you, customarily on Friday by 1PM local time. Employee pay checks will not be released to anyone other than you, except with your written permission (required for every instance), and submitted to your General Manager.

Non-exempt associates will be paid for all work in excess of 40 hours a week at hourly rate plus $\frac{1}{2}$ hourly wages, in accordance with Federal and State laws.

- Overtime must be approved by your manager before it is performed.
- Personal Time Off will not be counted towards hours worked for overtime calculations.

Failure to work scheduled overtime or overtime worked without prior authorization from the supervisor may result in disciplinary action, up to and including possible termination of employment.

FRATERNIZING WITH GUESTS AND DATING AT THE WORK PLACE

Contact with guests, other than in the normal course of day-to-day operations of the hotel is not permitted at any time. Unauthorized presence at guest functions, or unauthorized presence anywhere on the hotel premises, including guest rooms, may be considered a violation of Hotel policy and disciplinary action may result.

Supervisors and associates under their supervision are strongly discouraged from forming romantic or sexual relationships. Such relationships can create the impression of impropriety in terms and conditions of employment and can interfere with productivity and the overall work environment.

If you are unsure of the appropriateness of an interaction with another associate of the Hotel, contact any member of management or the administrative office for guidance.

If you are encouraged or pressured to become involved with a customer or associate in a way that makes you feel uncomfortable, you should also notify management immediately.

CONTACT WITH MEDIA

In the event that you are contacted by any member of the media or any outside party regarding hotel business or incident, occurring on or off property, kindly refer such inquiries to your General Manager.

Destroying or deleting e-mail messages which are considered business records is strictly prohibited. The Hotel reserves the right to monitor all electronic mail retention and take appropriate management action, if necessary, including disciplinary action, for violations of this policy up to and including termination.

The Hotel reserves the right to take immediate action, up to and including termination, regarding activities (1) that create security and/or safety issues for the Hotel, associates, vendors, network or computer resources, or (2) that expend Hotel resources on content the Hotel in its sole discretion determines lacks legitimate business content/purpose, (3) other activities as determined by Hotel as inappropriate, or (4) violation of any federal or state regulations.

Permission must be obtained from your General Manager in order to remove any item from the hotel premises. (An example of such is a small article of minimal value that the guest did not take with him/her). The hotel has the right of inspection and retention of any such items suspected to being removed from the premises. At no time is food of any type or form, full or partial, containers of alcoholic beverages to be removed from the Hotel.

ACCESS TO HOTEL FACILITIES AND SOLICITATION POLICY

The hotel and its facilities are for the use and enjoyment of the hotel guests. Associates are to leave the building and premises immediately after their scheduled shifts. Only associates, guests, visitors, vendors and suppliers doing business with the Hotel or its affiliates are permitted at any time on the Hotel's premises. Persons other than associates of the Hotel may never engage in solicitation, distribution or postings of written or printed materials of any nature at any time in or on the Hotel's premises.

Employees are prohibited from engaging in solicitation or distribution of any kind during working time, in any working areas, including guest rooms, guest dining areas, parking lot or areas within the Hotel where guests congregate (lobby, lounge, etc.).

For the purpose of this policy, "working time" includes the working time of both the associate doing the solicitation or distribution and the associate to whom it is directed, but does not include break, lunch or other duty-free periods of time.

Off-duty associates are not permitted access to the interior of the Hotel's premises except where they are attending a Hotel event, or to conduct business with the Hotel's management or administrative office that cannot be conducted during the associate's regular work shift. Unless explicitly approved by the asset manager, associates are not permitted to stay on property.

EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Your employer (the "Hotel") provides equal employment opportunities to all employees and applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, national origin, age, disability, genetic predisposition, military or veteran status in accordance with applicable federal, state or local laws. This policy applies to all terms and conditions of employment, including but not limited to, hiring, placement, promotion, termination, transfer, leaves of absence, compensation, and training.

SEXUAL AND OTHER UNLAWFUL HARASSMENT

We are committed to providing a work environment that is free from sexual discrimination and sexual harassment in any form, as well as unlawful harassment based upon any other protected characteristic. In keeping with that commitment, we have established procedures by which allegations of sexual or other unlawful harassment may be reported, investigated and resolved. Each manager and associate has the responsibility to maintain a workplace free of sexual and other unlawful harassment. This duty includes ensuring that associates do not endure insulting, degrading or exploitative sexual treatment.

Sexual harassment is a form of associate misconduct which interferes with work productivity and wrongfully deprives associates of the opportunity to work in an environment free from unsolicited and unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors and other such verbal or physical conduct. Sexual harassment has many different definitions and it is not the intent of this policy to limit the definition of sexual harassment, but rather to give associates as much guidance as possible concerning what activities may constitute sexual harassment.

Prohibited conduct includes, but is not limited to, unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors and other similar verbal or physical contact of a sexual nature where:

- Submission to such conduct is either an explicit or implicit condition of employment;
- Submission to or rejection of such conduct is used as a basis for making an employment-related decision;
- The conduct unreasonably interferes with an individual's work performance; or
- The conduct creates a hostile, intimidating or offensive work environment.

Sexual harassment may be male to female, female to male, female to female or male to male. Similarly, other unlawful harassment may be committed by and between individuals who share the same protected characteristics, such as race, age or national origin. Actions which may result in charges of sexual harassment include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Unwelcome physical contact, including touching on any part of the body, kissing, hugging or standing so close as to brush up against another person;
- Requests for sexual favors either directly or indirectly;
- Requiring explicit or implicit sexual conduct as a condition of employment, a condition of obtaining a raise, a condition of obtaining new duties or any type of advancement in the workplace; or
- Requiring an associate to perform certain duties or responsibilities simply because of his or her gender or other protected characteristic.

Other behavior that may seem innocent or acceptable to some people can constitute sexual harassment to others. Prohibited behaviors include, but are not limited to:

- unwelcome sexual flirtations, advances, jokes or propositions;
- unwelcome comments about an individual's body or personal life;
- openly discussing intimate details of one's own personal life;
- sexually degrading words to describe an individual; or
- displays in the workplace of objects, pictures, cartoons or writings, which might be perceived as sexually suggestive.

Unwelcome conduct such as degrading jokes, foul language directed to or at a person, racial slurs, comments, cartoons or writing based upon any other protected characteristic is similarly prohibited.

All associates are required to report any incidents of sexual or other unlawful harassment of which they have knowledge. Similarly, if you ever feel aggrieved because of sexual harassment, you have an obligation to communicate the problem immediately and should report such concerns to your manager, and/or the offending associate directly. If this is not an acceptable option, you should report your concern directly to the administrative office confidentially. In all cases in which a manager or another member of management is notified first, the administrative office should be notified immediately. Management has an obligation to report any suspected violations of this policy to the asset manager. A manager who is aware of a violation, even if the associate is outside the manager's immediate area of supervision, but doesn't report it, will be held accountable for his or her inaction. The asset manager shall conduct a prompt investigation of the allegations to obtain the facts from any and all parties or witnesses.

While we will attempt to maintain the confidentiality of the information received, it will not always be possible to do so. Should the facts support the allegations made, we will remedy the situation and, if appropriate under the circumstances, take disciplinary action up to and including termination.

I understand my employment and compensation can be terminated, with or without cause, with or without notice, at any time and at the option of either the Hotel or myself. EMPLOYEE HANDBOOK ACKNOWLEDGMENT

I understand that the handbook may be updated at any time and it is my responsibility to stay informed of changes. The handbook does not constitute an employment contract.

Violation of this policy may lead to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Your employer (the "Hotel") provides equal employment opportunities to all employees and applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, national origin, age, disability, genetic predisposition, military or veteran status in accordance with applicable federal, state or local laws. This policy applies to all terms and conditions of employment, including but not limited to, hiring, placement, promotion, termination, transfer, leaves of absence, compensation, and training.

SEXUAL AND OTHER UNLAWFUL HARASSMENT

We are committed to providing a work environment that is free from sexual discrimination and sexual harassment in any form, as well as unlawful harassment based upon any other protected characteristic. In keeping with that commitment, we have established procedures by which allegations of sexual or other unlawful harassment may be reported, investigated and resolved. Each manager and associate has the responsibility to maintain a workplace free of sexual and other unlawful harassment. This duty includes ensuring that associates do not endure insulting, degrading or exploitative sexual treatment.

Sexual harassment is a form of associate misconduct which interferes with work productivity and wrongfully deprives associates of the opportunity to work in an environment free from unsolicited and unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors and other such verbal or physical conduct. Sexual harassment has many different definitions and it is not the intent of this policy to limit the definition of sexual harassment, but rather to give associates as much guidance as possible concerning what activities may constitute sexual harassment.

Prohibited conduct includes, but is not limited to, unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors and other similar verbal or physical contact of a sexual nature where:

- Submission to such conduct is either an explicit or implicit condition of employment;
- Submission to or rejection of such conduct is used as a basis for making an employment-related decision;
- The conduct unreasonably interferes with an individual's work performance; or
- The conduct creates a hostile, intimidating or offensive work environment.

Sexual harassment may be male to female, female to male, female to female or male to male. Similarly, other unlawful harassment may be committed by and between individuals who share the same protected characteristics, such as race, age or national origin. Actions which may result in charges of sexual harassment include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Unwelcome physical contact, including touching on any part of the body, kissing, hugging or standing so close as to brush up against another person;
- Requests for sexual favors either directly or indirectly;
- Requiring explicit or implicit sexual conduct as a condition of employment, a condition of obtaining a raise, a condition of obtaining new duties or any type of advancement in the workplace; or
- Requiring an associate to perform certain duties or responsibilities simply because of his or her gender or other protected characteristic.

Other behavior that may seem innocent or acceptable to some people can constitute sexual harassment to others. Prohibited behaviors include, but are not limited to:

- unwelcome sexual flirtations, advances, jokes or propositions;
- unwelcome comments about an individual's body or personal life;
- openly discussing intimate details of one's own personal life;
- sexually degrading words to describe an individual; or
- displays in the workplace of objects, pictures, cartoons or writings, which might be perceived as sexually suggestive.

Unwelcome conduct such as degrading jokes, foul language direct to or at a person, racial slurs, comments, cartoons or writing based upon any other protected characteristic is similarly prohibited.

All associates are required to report any incidents of sexual or other unlawful harassment of which they have knowledge. Similarly, if you ever feel aggrieved because of sexual harassment, you have an obligation to communicate the problem immediately and should report such concerns to your manager, and/or the offending associate directly. If this is not an acceptable option, you should report your concern directly to the administrative office confidentially. In all cases in which a manager or another member of management is notified first, the administrative office should be notified immediately. Management has an obligation to report any suspected violations of this policy to the asset manager. A manager who is aware of a violation, even if the associate is outside the manager's immediate area of supervision, but doesn't report it, will be held accountable for his or her inaction. The asset manager shall conduct a prompt investigation of the allegations to obtain the facts from any and all parties or witnesses.

While we will attempt to maintain the confidentiality of the information received, it will not always be possible to do so. Should the facts support the allegations made, we will remedy the situation and, if appropriate under the circumstances, take disciplinary action up to and including termination.

TIP: Consider using the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App to determine the most accurate withholding for the rest of the year if: you are completing this form after the beginning of the year; expect to work only part of the year; or have changes during the year in your marital status, number of jobs for you (and/or your spouse if married filing jointly), dependents, other income (not from jobs), deductions, or credits. Have your most recent pay stub(s) from this year available when using the estimator. At the beginning of next year, use the estimator again to recheck your withholding.

Complete Steps 2–4 ONLY if they apply to you; otherwise, skip to Step 5. See page 2 for more information on each step, who can claim exemption from withholding, and when to use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

Step 2:

Complete this step if you (1) hold more than one job at a time, or (2) are married filing jointly and your spouse also works. The correct amount of withholding depends on income earned from all of these jobs.

(c) If there are only two jobs total, you may check this box. Do the same on Form W-4 for the other job. This option is generally more accurate than (b) if pay at the lower paying job is more than half of the pay at the higher paying job. Otherwise, (b) is more accurate ☐

Complete Steps 3–4(b) on Form W-4 for only ONE of these jobs. Leave those steps blank for the other jobs. (Your withholding will be most accurate if you complete Steps 3–4(b) on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.)

Add the amounts above for qualifying children and other dependents. You may add to this the amount of any other credits. Enter the total here

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. If too little is withheld, you will generally owe tax when you file your tax return and may owe a penalty. If too much is withheld, you will generally be due a refund. Complete a new Form W-4 when changes to your personal or financial situation would change the entries on the form. For more information on withholding and when you must furnish a new Form W-4, see Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Exemption from withholding. You may claim exemption from withholding for 2025 if you meet both of the following conditions: you had no federal income tax liability in 2024 and you expect to have no federal income tax liability in 2025. You had no federal income tax liability in 2024 if (1) your total tax on line 24 on your 2024 Form 1040 or 1040-SR is zero (or less than the sum of lines 27, 28, and 29), or (2) you were not required to file a return because your income was below the filing threshold for your correct filing status. If you claim exemption, you will have no income tax withheld from your paycheck and may owe taxes and penalties when you file your 2025 tax return. To claim exemption from withholding, certify that you meet both of the conditions above by writing "Exempt" on Form W-4 in the space below Step 4(c). Then, complete Steps 1(a), 1(b), and 5. Do not complete any other steps. You will need to submit a new Form W-4 by February 17, 2026.

Your privacy. Steps 2(c) and 4(a) ask for information regarding income you received from sources other than the job associated with this Form W-4. If you have concerns with providing the information asked for in Step 2(c), you may choose Step 2(b) as an alternative; if you have concerns with providing the information asked for in Step 4(a), you may enter an additional amount you want withheld per pay period in Step 4(c) as an alternative.

When to use the estimator. Consider using the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App if you:

1. Are submitting this form after the beginning of the year;
2. Expect to work only part of the year;
3. Have changes during the year in your marital status, number of jobs for you (and/or your spouse if married filing jointly), or number of dependents, or changes in your deductions or credits;
4. Receive dividends, capital gains, social security, bonuses, or business income, or are subject to the Additional Medicare Tax or Net Investment Income Tax; or
5. Prefer the most accurate withholding for multiple job situations.

TIP: Have your most recent pay stub(s) from this year available when using the estimator to account for federal income tax that has already been withheld this year. At the beginning of next year, use the estimator again to recheck your withholding.

Self-employment. Generally, you will owe both income and self-employment taxes on any self-employment income you receive separate from the wages you receive as an employee. If you want to pay these taxes through withholding from your wages, use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App to figure the amount to have withheld.

Nonresident alien. If you're a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Specific Instructions

Step 1(c). Check your anticipated filing status. This will determine the standard deduction and tax rates used to compute your withholding.

Step 2. Use this step if you (1) have more than one job at the same time, or (2) are married filing jointly and you and your spouse both work. Submit a separate Form W-4 for each job.

Option (a) most accurately calculates the additional tax you need to have withheld, while option (b) does so with a little less accuracy.

Instead, if you (and your spouse) have a total of only two jobs, you may check the box in option (c). The box must also be checked on the Form W-4 for the other job. If the box is checked, the standard deduction and tax brackets will be cut in half for each job to calculate withholding. This option is accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld, and this extra amount will be larger the greater the difference in pay is between the two jobs.

Multiple jobs. Complete Steps 3 through 4(b) on only one Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you do this on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Step 3. This step provides instructions for determining the amount of the child tax credit and the credit for other dependents that you may be able to claim when you file your tax return. To qualify for the child tax credit, the child must be under age 17 as of December 31, must be your dependent who generally lives with you for more than half the year, and must have the required social security number. You may be able to claim a credit for other dependents for whom a child tax credit can't be claimed, such as an older child or a qualifying relative. For additional eligibility requirements for these credits, see Pub. 501, Dependents, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information. You can also include other tax credits for which you are eligible in this step, such as the foreign tax credit and the education tax credits. To do so, add an estimate of the amount for the year to your credits for dependents and enter the total amount in Step 3. Including these credits will increase your paycheck and reduce the amount of any refund you may receive when you file your tax return.

Step 4 (optional).

Step 4(a). Enter in this step the total of your other estimated income for the year, if any. You shouldn't include income from any jobs or self-employment. If you complete Step 4(a), you likely won't have to make estimated tax payments for that income. If you prefer to pay estimated tax rather than having tax on other income withheld from your paycheck, see Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals.

Step 4(b). Enter in this step the amount from the Deductions Worksheet, line 5, if you expect to claim deductions other than the basic standard deduction on your 2025 tax return and want to reduce your withholding to account for these deductions. This includes both itemized deductions and other deductions such as for student loan interest and IRAs.

Step 4(c). Enter in this step any additional tax you want withheld from your pay each pay period, including any amounts from the Multiple Jobs Worksheet, line 4. Entering an amount here will reduce your paycheck and will either increase your refund or reduce any amount of tax that you owe.

Step 2(b)—Multiple Jobs Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

If you choose the option in Step 2(b) on Form W-4, complete this worksheet (which calculates the total extra tax for all jobs) on only ONE Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you complete the worksheet and enter the result on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job. To be accurate, submit a new Form W-4 for all other jobs if you have not updated your withholding since 2019.

Note: If more than one job has annual wages of more than $120,000 or there are more than three jobs, see Pub. 505 for additional tables; or, you can use the online withholding estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

- 1 Two jobs. If you have two jobs or you're married filing jointly and you and your spouse each have one job, find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4. Using the "Higher Paying Job" row and the "Lower Paying Job" column, find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 1. Then, skip to line 3 1 $ _____
- 2 Three jobs. If you and/or your spouse have three jobs at the same time, complete lines 2a, 2b, and 2c below. Otherwise, skip to line 3.

Step 4(b)—Deductions Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

- 1 Enter an estimate of your 2025 itemized deductions (from Schedule A (Form 1040)). Such deductions may include qualifying home mortgage interest, charitable contributions, state and local taxes (up to $10,000), and medical expenses in excess of 7.5% of your income 1 $ _____
- 2 Enter:

Employee Direct Deposit Enrollment Form

Payroll Manager – Please complete this section and send a copy to ADP for enrollment. (Please print.)

Company Code: _____ Company Name: _____ Employee File Number: _____

Payroll Mgr. Name: _____ Payroll Mgr. Signature: _____

To enroll in Full Service Direct Deposit, simply fill out this form and give to your payroll manager. Attach a voided check for each checking account - not a deposit slip. If depositing to a savings account, ask your bank to give you the Routing/Transit Number for your account. It isn't always the same as the number on a savings deposit slip. This will help ensure that you are paid correctly.

Below is a sample check MICR line, detailing where the information necessary to complete this form can be found.

I understand that if my required contribution to pay premiums for the elected benefits are increased or decreased while this agreement remains in effect, my compensation redirection will automatically be adjusted to reflect that increase or decrease.

I understand that:

- I cannot change or revoke any of my elections or this compensation reduction agreement at any time during the plan year unless I have changes in family status (some examples of possible qualifying events include: marriage, divorce, death of a spouse or child, birth or adoption of a child, termination or commencement of employment of spouse, change in my spouse's employment status from full-time to part-time or from part-time to full-time, a substantial change in my family's health coverage due to a change in my spouse's employer-sponsored health coverage, etc.). Notification of change must be within 30 days of the qualifying event. Qualifying events are defined in the plan's Summary Plan Description.
- I may be able to make a change to my elections if I, or my dependents, lose eligibility for coverage under Medicaid or the Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP) or become eligible for a premium assistance subsidy under Medicaid or CHIP. Notification of change must be within 60 days of this qualifying event.
- Prior to the first day of each plan year I will be offered the opportunity to change my benefit elections for the following plan year.
- I hereby authorize my employer to reduce my cash compensation by the amount(s) indicated for each pay period during the plan year following the date on which this agreement is signed.
- I understand that my election may impact my future Social Security benefits.
- If I do not file a new Agreement to Participate and a new Salary Reduction Agreement with the Plan Administrator before the start of each new plan year, my current elections will be continued (to the extent available) until I change my elections, and my salary will be reduced accordingly by my Employer.

For Coverages Offered UnitedHealthcare: I understand that payment of premium does not ensure my eligibility for coverage. I understand and agree that I must satisfy all active work and/or active employment requirements that pertain to the policy to be eligible for coverage. I understand and agree that life insurance coverage for my eligible dependent(s) may be delayed if they are confined (at home, in a hospital, or in any other institution or facility) or disabled on the date insurance would otherwise begin, in accordance with the terms of the policy.
